of our last year in

BEAVER HIGH

We, the CLASS of 1951,

now present it

for your approval

Proudly

"If you want to get a job done, assign it to a busy person."

This must have been the philosophy which guided the Beaver High School administration in their appointment of a sponsor for the senior class. To guide us, to lead us, and to inspire us to the fulfillment of all our high school dreams, they could have made no better choice than Mr. William L. Charlesworth.

Who can forget his quick, firm step as he hurried down the halls to keep one of his numerous appointments? He is one of the busiest individuals around Beaver High School, yet who ever saw him flustered? In his calm and confident manner he helped us plan our senior projects and activities, then supplied the enthusiasm to carry them to ultimate completion. From him as sophomores in biology class we learned our first scientific approach to life and from further association with him, we have developed a democratic viewpoint toward humanity.

As a youth, our sponsor had the unbounding energy required for hiking through the woods collecting such specimen as worms and reptiles. Little wonder then that when he entered the University of Pittsburgh he chose biology as his major field of interest. He worked his way through college by washing windows in the Cathedral of Learning and assisting the gardeners in Phipps Conservatory. By further study he has now earned his master's degree as well.

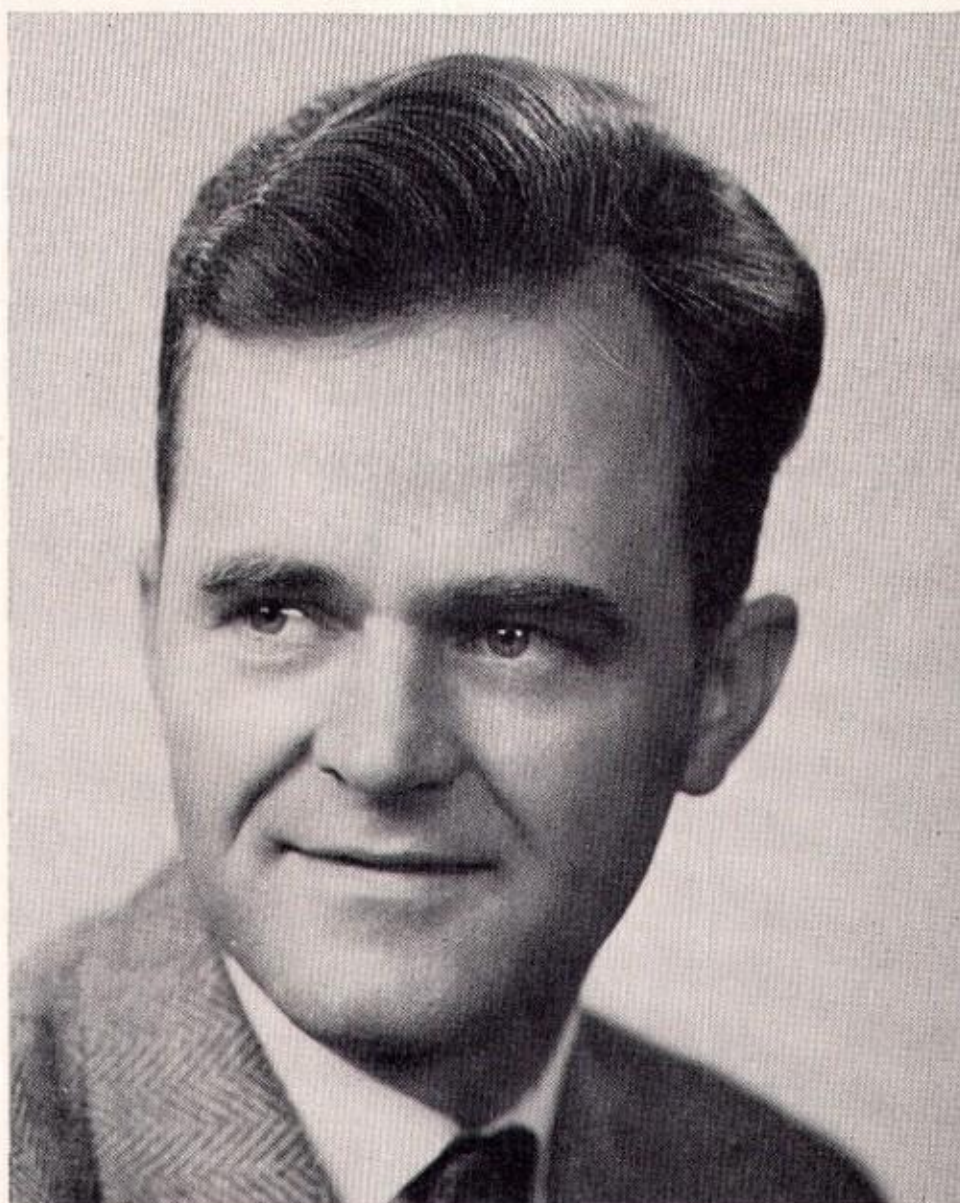

In 1941, Mr. Charlesworth came to Beaver to teach biology. Next to his wife and his three active children who learn their genes like A B C's, his first love is biological science. Here is one teacher who really enjoys his subject! His ambition is to make his pupils enjoy it too and from all indications, he is successful.

When World War II came, he enlisted in the Navy and spent two years as a lieutenant, j. g.—isolated in the Aleutian Islands. What he thinks of animal life in Alaska is best left unsaid.

Back in Beaver again in 1946, Mr. Charlesworth's busy career really began. His first school hobby was the S A N S Club. Later he reorganized the Camera Club and engineered a dark room in the basement, but did not give instructions in "dark room procedures". Each year brings him a new senior class to sponsor. But his activities are not confined to Beaver High School. His ability in the scientific field was recognized when he was appointed to the State Science Committee for Curriculum Revision. He has served as Mid-western District Chairman of the Curriculum Committee for two years. His interests also extend into the community, for he is past president of both the Kiwanis and of the Beaver Garden Clubs and is active in the United Presbyterian Church.

In appreciation for his service to our school and to the community and with gratitude for his patience, friendship, and wise counsel, we, the Senior Class, proudly dedicate this Shingas for 1951 to our Class sponsor, Mr. William L. Charlesworth.

In Appreciation

The Class of 1951 would like to take this opportunity to express its thanks and appreciation to Mr. Charlesworth and Mr. Paterick for their work in making our final year in High School as successful as it has been.

Only through their leadership have we been able to accomplish our projects, plans and of course our Shingas for our last and best year in High School.

To all others who have helped, guided and counseled us during these years we also extend our sincere thanks.

Merrily We've Rolled Along

FIRST LAP!

"Now is the time for all little wheels (Us Frosh, no less) to put on our best bib and tucker, look humble, and be ready to take the riot act as read to us by the upper-classmen."

Seriously though, times weren't as bad as we had figured; experiences came thick and fast. Remember that first assembly—thrill number one—how we trotted in meekly with our ear trumpets and specs. (Any further back and we'd have been out the door). Can't you still see scared, little Bobby Pritchard timidly gripping Mr. Smith's hand? Thrill number two—almost anything goes; gum chewing (?) and imagine, no "molicepen" in the halls.

Then there were innumerable other thrills. Do you recall how we stared with "bug eyes" at our first Rocky pep meeting? Didn't the boys make cute cheerleaders? Remember the Bobcat dances we attended so assiduously, the Showboat Prom (at least we could look in), and the introduction to our first May Day. (After a hasty vote, we decided that Nan Rhodes should always wear a clown suit.) It wasn't fair though, to present us with those silly semester tests, just when we were having such a riotous time. "We was crushed!"

Any hour of the day would find us in Rolands, sipping contentedly (You know, the "Contented Hour") those cokes that were five cents (Oh those good old days), and listening ardently to such monstrosities as "Open the Door, Richard", "Near You", and "Alright, Louie, Drop the Gun". Speaking of monstrosities, how 'bout the formal look in girls' skirts that bloomed during our first year?

Ah, yes, one other feature of the year—Miss Kirchner's Echo-Ettes which often flashed the names of Janie Brew and Bill Edgar, Wags and Jim Roorbuck, along with Suzi Mac and Connie.

As our freshman year drew to a close, we put aside those thoughts of hic, haec, hoc and turned our attention to the coming year when we would no longer be the youngest of the lot. (Dreamers!)

ROUND TWO

Round two—and we're off for a bang-up year! Some say we were honored to be the last freshman class of B. H. S., but take it from us—"We was robbed!" 'Tis said Swauger spent sleepless nights worrying over the plight of the situation. But it was a Good Year!

Hold on, though! First things come first. Oh, that Rocky game! After the first five miles of that victory parade, most of us yearned to be lucky football players who could ride on Mutt's truck. (But who's complaining, we won, didn't we?) At the feeds provided by the "well wishers" those boys sure celebrated. As a climax to the season and to the winning of all those cups, we presented the team with our Football Dance—the best ever. Herein began the Bill Springer fad. Leave it to us!

Then too, the scholastic experiences—Our Miss Campbell and her beloved Silas Marner along with her favorite expression of chagrin, "People, people!"—Mr. Chuckworth and his study of "bugs, plants, and Homo Sapiens." Poor Gyps! She felt so sorry for the little worm she had to butcher. Then there was the all-important field trip to Pittsburgh. The zoo was enjoyed by everyone—especially Sam C. ("Member "Flash"?), who hated to leave his fellow-beings to catch a bus. We sure lost a "riot" when California picked him up. (Did we say "scholastic experiences?")

There was a more than usual flurry of social life that year, now that we were in the swing of things. First of all, we switched to Peak's—'nuff said'. At the wonderful "Tulip Time Prom" (give a little credit where credit is due, you know) such couples as Fred and Bunny, Suzi and Sam, and Marlene and Dallie floated dreamily to the strains of "Forever and Ever", "Slow Boat to China", "So Tired", "Tree in the Meadow", and of course the ever-popular "Stardust". Seems Tinnie spent the next day soaking her feet; it was Giff's last prom and he wanted to dance every dance. Yep'er, it was quite a night, our first prom was.

Last, but not least, are the little odds and ends to remember. All of us have at least one experience from this year which stands out as "rare". It may be a dance, a slumber party (remember, girls?), or even that song, "I Didn't Know the Gun Was Loaded".

Although the year drew to an all-too-quick end, we knew the bigger and better things would come to us, upperclassmen.

THIRD QUARTER

At last! Now we can look down on someone, but it's taken a long time. We took on new social airs as we entered the front door and were introduced to the general hub-bub in the life of an upperclassman. Remember our first day when Mrs. Cook gave us her sage prophecy, "If your junior year isn't the best year so far, I'll be disappointed." But who was disappointed?

First off, the year brought us some new-comers in the persons of Mary Ellen Meyers, Barbara Downey, Bob Sell, Louise Nichols, and our flashy athlete, Denny. Ambridge's gift, Bob Richards, was soon gobbled up by Beaver's Evelyn Cable.

Mr. Reber added several wrinkles to that gray stuff called brain matter with his songs of "Learn Your Valences" and "All Simple Gases." No, our class didn't leave those marks on the blackboard, but just look around, kiddies, you'll find a few remains somewhere. For further reference concerning the gouged-out desk number one, see Boyd Clark. You can still see Margie Kane fussing around the lab trying to find out how baking soda works.

As upperclassmen, the year provided us with new "firsts". The "Echo" Staff, Magazine Sales, Writing Awards, Class Play, and Prom.

Our beloved brain-child, "Years Ago", has given us much to remember. Who can ever forget that immortal line, "Get her by the rear end, boys!" or those renditions of "Too Much Mustard", and "Sailing, Sailing"?

We broke mirrors, stuffed chicken wire with paper, and painted fishes, fishes, and more fishes. What for? For our very own enchanted evening—the Underwater Fantasy Prom.

Our junior year was filled with "institutions" within the institution: Fife's "Blue Beetle" jalop; Mr. Paterick's Problems of Shingas Class; our little monster, Norms; Tom and Moorie; Ron and Margie; Jim English's faithful green "putt-putt"; "I'll Never See Maggie Alone"; "Mule Train".

As June and vacation time rolled around we began to realize that next year we'd be going through the old routines for the last time.

OUR LAST YEAR

SEPTEMBER

5—Back again and the thrill that comes once in a lifetime—at last we're holding down the first pews in assembly.

6—Fife gives directions to Nelson Ruehl on how to get to room 102. "Take the clothes chute to the basement, third door to the left and---".

8—First pep meeting. Feels good to be back cheering for the guys again—to no avail.

12—Library boner—Swauger: "Mrs. Johnson, where's the wastebasket?" Pritch: "Filed under W!" How dumb can one senior get?

16—Tarentum aggregation—'Nuff said.

21—P. T. A. Teas. Hooray! We'll take more of these! Out at 2:30, so what happened?—it rains!

22—Shingas applications in—all six of them. Tsk, tsk! It's a shame they're all typists.

23—Fifth Avenue—and our hopes went wild. (Well—we tied it, didn't we?)

27—One of the best assemblies. Mr. Robert Katzmayer presents his views on world affairs.

28—Drip! Drip! Don't fret, Miss Esenwein. It's only Mr. Reber's leaky pipe.

29—What a pep meeting! Norms has missed his calling—he's quite an elocutionist. (Page 352 in Webster's Word Book, Norms.) Hey, lookie! Who're those Cat Men all dressed up in white shirts and ties? Why, it's only the fellows all spruced up for Shingas pics.

30—"Call to arms." The first Bobcat Dance. Now's the time for all good kiddies to dust off their dancin' slippers and whirl.

OCTOBER

2—We notice that Steve O. shaved for a change. Could it be the return of a Denverite?

3—For further information concerning the nickname of this day—"Farmer Moorie"—contact Ronnie Miller.

4—What a load! That's just Garvin's car, stacked three deep, ready for the take-off to Play Day.

5—We took our 35-0 defeat at the hands of New Brighton in stride, when the juniors promised us they'd pull a revenge next year. Good luck.

6—Wha' happened! No school. Guess those teachers would rather attend conventions anyway.

9—Well, this ends this short 'n' sweet vacation.

11—William B. Holmes, along with Flip "Many Skirts" Morton and Jim "Indian" Marshall, informs us of the dress and some of the customs of Peruvian Incas.

13—Freedom overpowers us. Sure, it's Friday the thirteenth, nothing else.

- 20—What goes! Report cards and imagine, not one person got red marks. Just all F's.
- 21—This can't be! Report cards and our Monaca victory (12-7) all in the same weekend. Oh well, who's complaining when it means we celebrate?
- 25—Spaghetti feed for the football team. We understand Mr. Paterick almost refused Fred his fourth helping.
- 26—Fred recuperates at home from a strenuous night. You know, after affects. Seems Mrs. Johnson has found a new occupation—selling the apples hidden behind the books on the library shelves.
- 27—All that whistling in pep meeting rings a bell with the team. Coraopolis 6, Beaver 6.
- 28—Bobcat Dance. To strains of "Nevertheless", "Harbor Lights", and "I Need You So" (With apologies to Don Cornell) we glided while Steve galloped.
- 30—Ah, here at last! First day of Shingas sales. Try some psychology, salesmen.
- 31—Candles burn (and drip) at the beautiful and impressive Tri-Hi-Y induction service.

NOVEMBER

- 3—All hail, King Beaver. Some pep meeting—and HOW! Our spirits were soon dampened, however, it didn't rain very much.
- 6—Finally got around to the Rochy game. Let's not mention the score 'cause we never were ones to conform to a two year tradition.
- 8—Well, well, something new has been added—tea dances in the library. "Hahve some te ahnd crumpets, old chahp!"
- 11—"Doosie-doe and swing them all." Back to our old hillbilly selves. Bobcat Club scores again with a swell square dance.
- 15—The squad eats! And eats! And eats! And eats!
- 16—Ooh, what flashy maroon sweaters!
- 17—Assembly—Morgan and Dollar show some sharp judo tricks. Beware, boys, don't try to tickle a girl under the chin.----Congrats to the Sophs for their successful Football Dance.
- 21—All thoughts (Who thinks?) of homework forgotten as Speech Class and N. H. S. attend Nixon to see the famous Lunt and Fontaine in "I Know My Love".
- 22—Thanksgiving assembly. Remember the details yourself, we want to get out!
- 23—Turkey and----look, Ma, SNOW!
- 24—Still snowing.
- 25-Dec. 3—We sledride. Oh, our aching -----!

DECEMBER

- 1—Basketball makes its debut with Beaver Falls.
- 4—Knew it was too good to last. Back to school.
- 5—We won this time. Leetsdale.
- 9—Ditto. Wampum.
- 12—Ditto again. Hum, how long can this last?
- 13—Report cards. Let's face it. We will have to get around to studying. What am I saying!
- 15—Spanish Club members cash in on the "breaking of the pinata" at their Christmas meeting. Basketball game with Beaver Falls. We fixed them this time and won.
- 19—Wampum overpowered by task force.
- 20—Christmas assembly. Mixed Chorus and Speaking Choir entertain. Aud's knees shake as she rakes in $50.
- 28—Christmas Bobcat Dance—Ah, ah, kiddies, mind your dancing P's and Q's and keep both hands on the wheel. (Pun)
- 31—We make merry as the New Year slips in. For additional information see Maryellen Ketterer, Liz Yandell, or--

JANUARY

- 2—What do we face? School—and Macbeth.
- 3—Margie Kane begins her P. O. D. discussion of the various "isms".
- 4—Marge continues discussion.
- 5—Discussing? Ray Schindle shines as Senior Speech Class presents "Balcony Scene". First league game with Freedom and what do we do? Ha!
- 6—We spend our shekles at the M. A. C. Carnival.
- 8—Whew! Still d'scussing. This could be a filibuster.
- 9—Aha! Non-league Chester and we win.
- 10—Knock, Knock! No, it's not the lost weekend. Just Jamie enacting the drunk scene from Macbeth.
- 11—Finally, Kane concludes. Plenty of "moosie" with variety unlimited. A tip top musical assembly.
- 12—This basketball is getting to be a popular item in the column. Now it's Midland.
- 16—Guess there wouldn't be a column without the games, though. Rochester.
- 17—Class gets a new project. (Nothing like having three in one year.) Oh well, we didn't want to sell "sit upons" anyway.

19—"Maybe I'm right and maybe I'm wrong" about the score, "but Nevertheless" we play Monaca.

20—More jeans and plaid shirts. Another super square dance.

24—Wow! Have you seen those amazons in the gym? Do we like Play Days!

25—Just realizing that it takes lots of food to make lots of air to blow lots of instruments to make lots of music. Band and orchestra banquet.

30—What a sigh of relief! End of the first semester and no tests. Rah!

31—Well, seniors, it's our last lap before the end.

FEBRUARY

2—Report cards again. What a way to start out the month!

3—Repeat performance. Bobcat Dance.

9—Wow, another assembly. That Mr. Morris really knew his stuff, didn't he? Take heed, tho', all you chem. students and don't do anything drastic.

13—Repetition. Rochester game.

14—An impressive National Honor Society installation. Congrats, all you Einsteins. Oh, yes, almost forgot—Today's "hearts and flowers" day. Touching, ain't we?

16—Monaca game. Care to make a prophecy?

17—When you wish at a wishing well, chances are it won't come true. Anyway, thanks to the Echo Staff for giving a swell time at the Heart Hop.

20—New Brighton—

23—Something original—Senior High goes operatic. "Jerry of Jericho Road."

MARCH

3—Another square dance. Thought some of the gals would be minus a few limbs after that workout.

9—Gay colors, confetti, and balloons! What else could one ask for at a Mardi Gras? Mnn, ooh, la, la!

14—Senior play skit—This isn't one written by Swauger, directed by Swauger, produced by Swauger, and acted by Swauger.

16—It's magnificent. It's stupendous, it's colossal! Our play—chalk up another one for the Class of '51.

21—We fidget and fuss. Last day before vacation.

25—From sunrise 'til we junk our wilted gardenias, it's Easter.

27—All good things come to an end sometime. School again.

APRIL

5—Review of music festival presented in assembly today.

6—"Blow, Gabriel, Blow." That's talent (?). I mean, that's talent (.). Music festival.

7—Walk, don't run, to the nearest bleachers. Another Bobcat Dance, naturally.

11—Fourth periods are so long and we get so hungry. Wonder if Woody still bakes those luscious cakes?

20—Thanks, juniors, for our last wonderful prom. Orchids to Norms who lasted all night this year.

21—Behold! The disastrous results of a night of riotous living. Ugh!

MAY

2—Report cards proclaim our nearness to the end.

3—Just sighted Miller calculating seconds to go.

4—Seniors struggle. State scholarship exams, maybe?

9—Our queen is beautiful
Of that we're sure.
But will it rain
Do not know, Senor.

11—We take off our hats to the newly-elected juniors, inducted today into the National Honor Society.

16—What is it, a county fair with blue ribbons and all? Shucks, it's Award Day. Just look at all those boys who can chin themselves and do one hundred pushups.

24—Ugh! Exams had to happen sometime. We understand Cliff had to come to school at 6:00 so he could unlock the school. Seems Chal Waddell couldn't wait.

25—Curtain goes up on the last act and everyone gets a chance. With lumps in our throats we sing Auld Lang Syne as we march up the aisle for the last time.

26—Rode the Wildcat, ate, rode the Wildcat, ate, rode the Wildcat (urp!) Now we're broke. Anyway had a wonderful time.

27—Baccalaureate and Pomp and Circumstance. The beginning of the end.

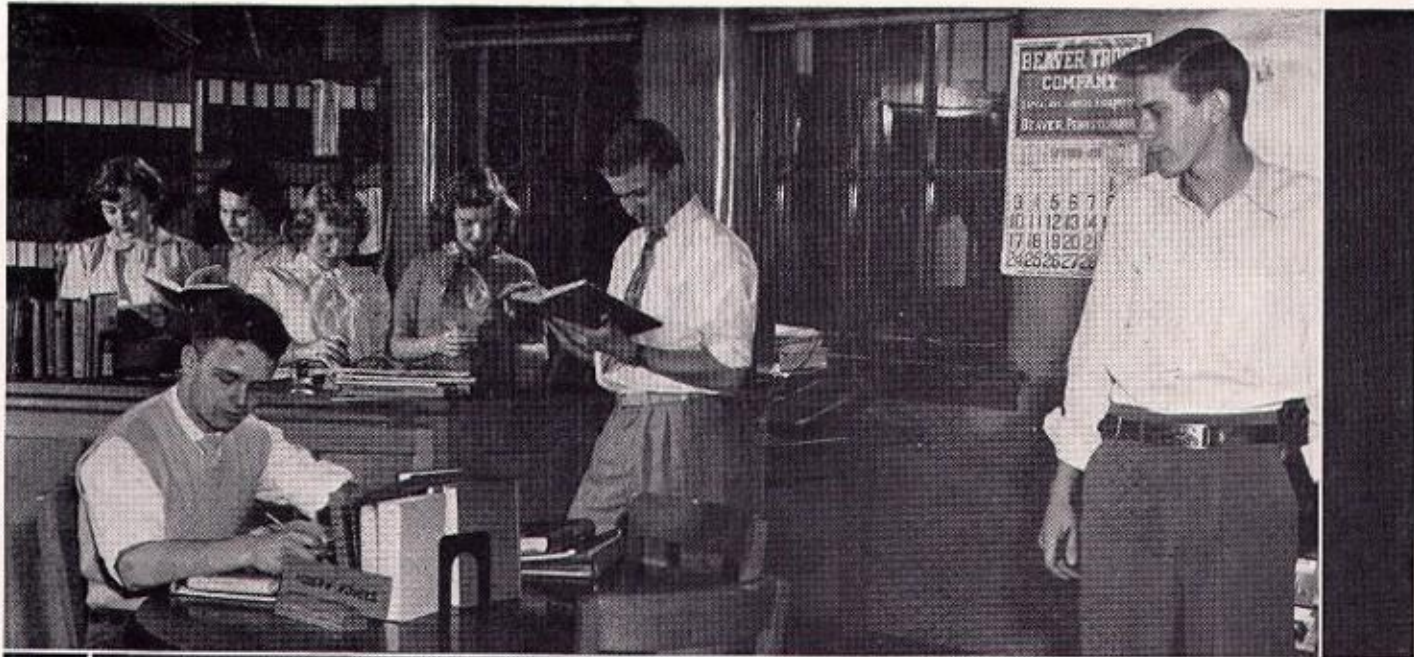

28—Ah-h-h! This is the life. We sleep 'til noon.

JUNE

1—With an inspiring commencement address by Dr. William Orr, President, Westminster College, we end our high school days.

2—Well, it's all over now but the shouting. You know it's funny, but who wants to shout?

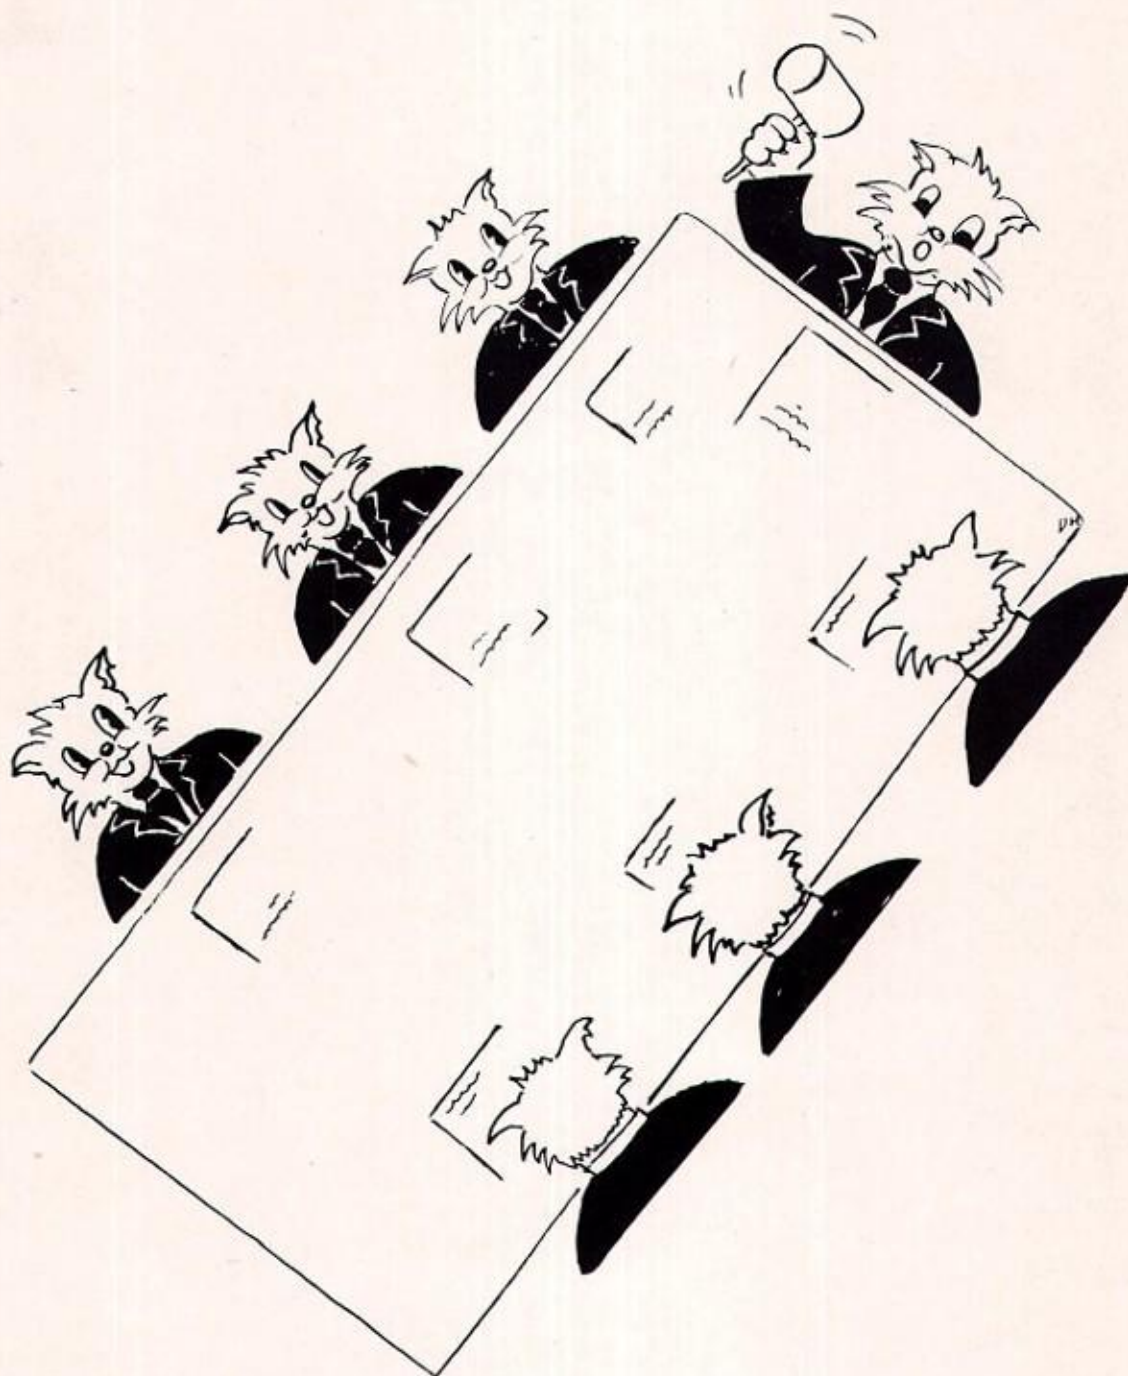

8—It's up to you now, underclassmen. Take care of our B. H. S.—it's given us four wonderful years.

We, the class of 1951, wish to take this opportunity to welcome Dr. Chandler B. McMillan to Beaver. We hope his stay in Beaver will be delightful and profitable both to him and to all of those who associate with him as parents, teachers, and pupils. As the first class to graduate under him, we would like to express our thanks for his efforts in our behalf.

May we also extend our thanks to Miss Kenah for her many kindnesses, especially those concerning our finances.

To Mr. Linn, as our principal, we express our gratitude for the many favors, kindnesses and encouragements shown us during our four years of high school life. Always willing to hear our tales of woe, ever on the alert to offer us counsel from his vast store of experiences, he stands as a true friend to all students of B. H. S. Our hope is that he may always remember us as we know we shall always reflect upon our days in high school.

To Mary Grove, well, words just cannot express our thanks and appreciation for her help. We would hate to think of old Beaver High without Mary in her accustomed place—always willing to help—and doing it so graciously and smilingly.

Activities

Preceding every football game, the Beaver High School band, composed of sixty-five members, greeted a cheering grandstand as they marched across the field in their now almost traditional, "Hi." A huge "B" and the "Alma Mater" added to the students' pep. At half-time, special novelty formations, including an animal show, a moon show, and a mock wedding were presented. Win or lose, the spirit of the band members could not be extinguished. This was readily demonstrated when they led the students back to the high school after each football contest.

The band made fine showings in the various parades, assemblies, and programs throughout the year, climaxing the season with the gala Spring Concert.

Robert Richards, Joseph Hammond, and Charles Hozworth attended the Midwestern Band. Considering the large number in competition, this was indeed an honor.

To reward the efforts of this industrious group, the Beaver Board of Trade sponsored a dinner in their behalf. The band banquet, sponsored by the Band Mothers, was held in January at the First Presbyterian Church. Letters were presented to members of the band and orchestra who had served three years and gold pins were given to the seniors.

Both students and faculty appreciate the efforts of Mr. Cornelius who worked untiringly to make the band so successful.

Not to be outdone by the football boys, the band and orchestra also enjoyed an annual banquet. The musicians celebrated their successful season January 25 at the First Presbyterian Church. Reverend Elmo G. Montag pronounced the invocation. Mr. W. W. Paterick made a most congenial master of ceremonies. Dr. Chandler B. McMillan and Mr. A. Murray Cornelius remarked on the band's success during the football season.

Mr. Charles S. Linn presented letters to the following students: Ross Crumrine, Raymond Hoffman, Charles Holzworth, Robert Richards, Jack Torp, Dale Williams, and Harry Young. Pins were presented to seniors by Mrs. Donald L. Hall, president of the Band Mothers. These seniors were: Don Cadley, Joseph Hammond, Reese Henry, James Hesser, Marjorie Kane, Janet Paterick, Rose Marie Schneider, Steve Schupay, Robert Richards, Patty Elkin, Nancy Mangiarelli, Chalmers Waddell, and Andree Razaire. Individual statuettes were also given to the seniors by Mr. Paterick. Don Cadley spoke in behalf of the band.

Entertainment consisted of a comical singing ensemble, "The Grasshopper Quartet."

The purpose of the band banquet was of course, to fete the band members, but the Band Mothers deserve the thanks of all. This sturdy group worked the refreshment stand faithfully during football season and helped in many ways to make the year a successful one.

Orchestra

Through the years, one of the most beautiful memories connected with high school will be the Beaver High School Orchestra of 1950-51. The orchestra expanded to twenty-six sincere and talented musicians who produced a new record of service to their Alma Mater.

Under the direction of Mr. A. Murray Cornelius, the orchestra joined with the mixed chorus to create something entirely different—a delightful operetta, "Jerry of Jericho Road." The orchestra performed brilliantly in the annual Spring Concert and entertained at the Junior and Senior class plays.

Rehearsing every Tuesday and Thursday, the young musicians worked hard to turn out performances they could be proud of. Their efforts were rewarded when, as in previous years, several of the orchestra members were chosen to represent Beaver High in the Mid-western and All-State Orchestra.

Congratulations are in order to Mr. Cornelius and the orchestra for a truly great year.

"Cameras Don't Lie" — And The 3 B's

Lights! Camera! Action! Well, at least camera! Hey, turn out those lights! This is the dark room you know—the newest addition to the facilities of the Camera Club. This club is now equipped to do developing and printing in addition to taking stills and movies.

We, in the Camera Club, really appreciate the enthusiastic leadership of our sponsor, Mr. Charlesworth. Officers of the club are: president, Joe Hammond; vice-president, Brook Painter; secretary, Gil McClure; treasurer, Janice Gooch.

The Music Appreciation Club, or the M. A. C. as its members voted to call it, took the place of the Latin Club. The meetings are held the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month, either at lunchtime or after school.

The officers of the club, Rose Marie Schnieder, president; Althea Speerhas, secretary; Josephine Pedriera, treasurer; Audrey Thompson, program chairman; and Miss Fleck, the sponsor of the club, deserve a great deal of credit for the wonderful work they did this year.

Shingas

"Blood, sweat and tears" have gone into the production of the Shingas in order to make it the best ever. More pictures, larger engravings and briefer write-ups have been effected in an attempt to make it more attractive. As usual it is a tremendous task to plan the book, take the pictures, organize the material, coordinating all efforts toward publishing a book that will meet the high standards of former years. Under the experienced leadership of Mr. Paterick, the editors, Mitzi Eakin and Jay

Paterick, along with the fine cooperative efforts of all other members of the staff, have produced the 1951 Shingas and feel certain that it will take its place with the best books of other classes.

Much can be said also for the fine work of our sales department under the leadership of Kurt Grunert and Jim Marshall. Through their fine work with the salesmen we are once again setting an all time record in producing 760 books.

The Echo

Those journalism students didn't miss a thing when it came to news of activities, sports and gossip. Under the capable direction of Mrs. Johnson, the Journalism Class worked assiduously through a series of assignments to be gathered, written, typed, and printed, in order that the "Echo" could be published each month.

This year two new features concerning the "Echo" were added. It was the first year that a separate typing staff, composed of advanced typing students, was a part of the regular Echo Staff. Then too, in addition to the monthly mimeographed paper, a printed paper was published each semester.

Other activities of the Journalism Class were the annual "Heart Hop" which was held in an atmosphere symbolic of Valentine's Day and a trip to the Beaver Valley Times office and plant.

"Voice of the Turtle"

Student Council

The Student Council is an organization which meets once each month for the purpose of presenting the viewpoints of the students and making suggestions concerning these angles. Each year one student is chosen to represent his homeroom on the council. From this group officers are chosen. This year's officers are president, Ronald Miller; vice-president, Phil Hamilton; and secretary, Toni Trent, who along with the council sponsor, Mrs. Shaul, are credited with the success of the many activities undertaken by this group. Among these projects were the selling of refreshments at the basketball games as in previous years, trimming of the annual Christmas tree, selling of pencils for the Tuberculosis Association, and the presentation of a big event, the Amateur Hour.

The Presidents Council

The Presidents Council was organized several years ago under the leadership of Dr. G. A. McCormick. Eligible for membership in the organization are the leaders of all high school activities. Editors, captains, presidents, and leaders are included.

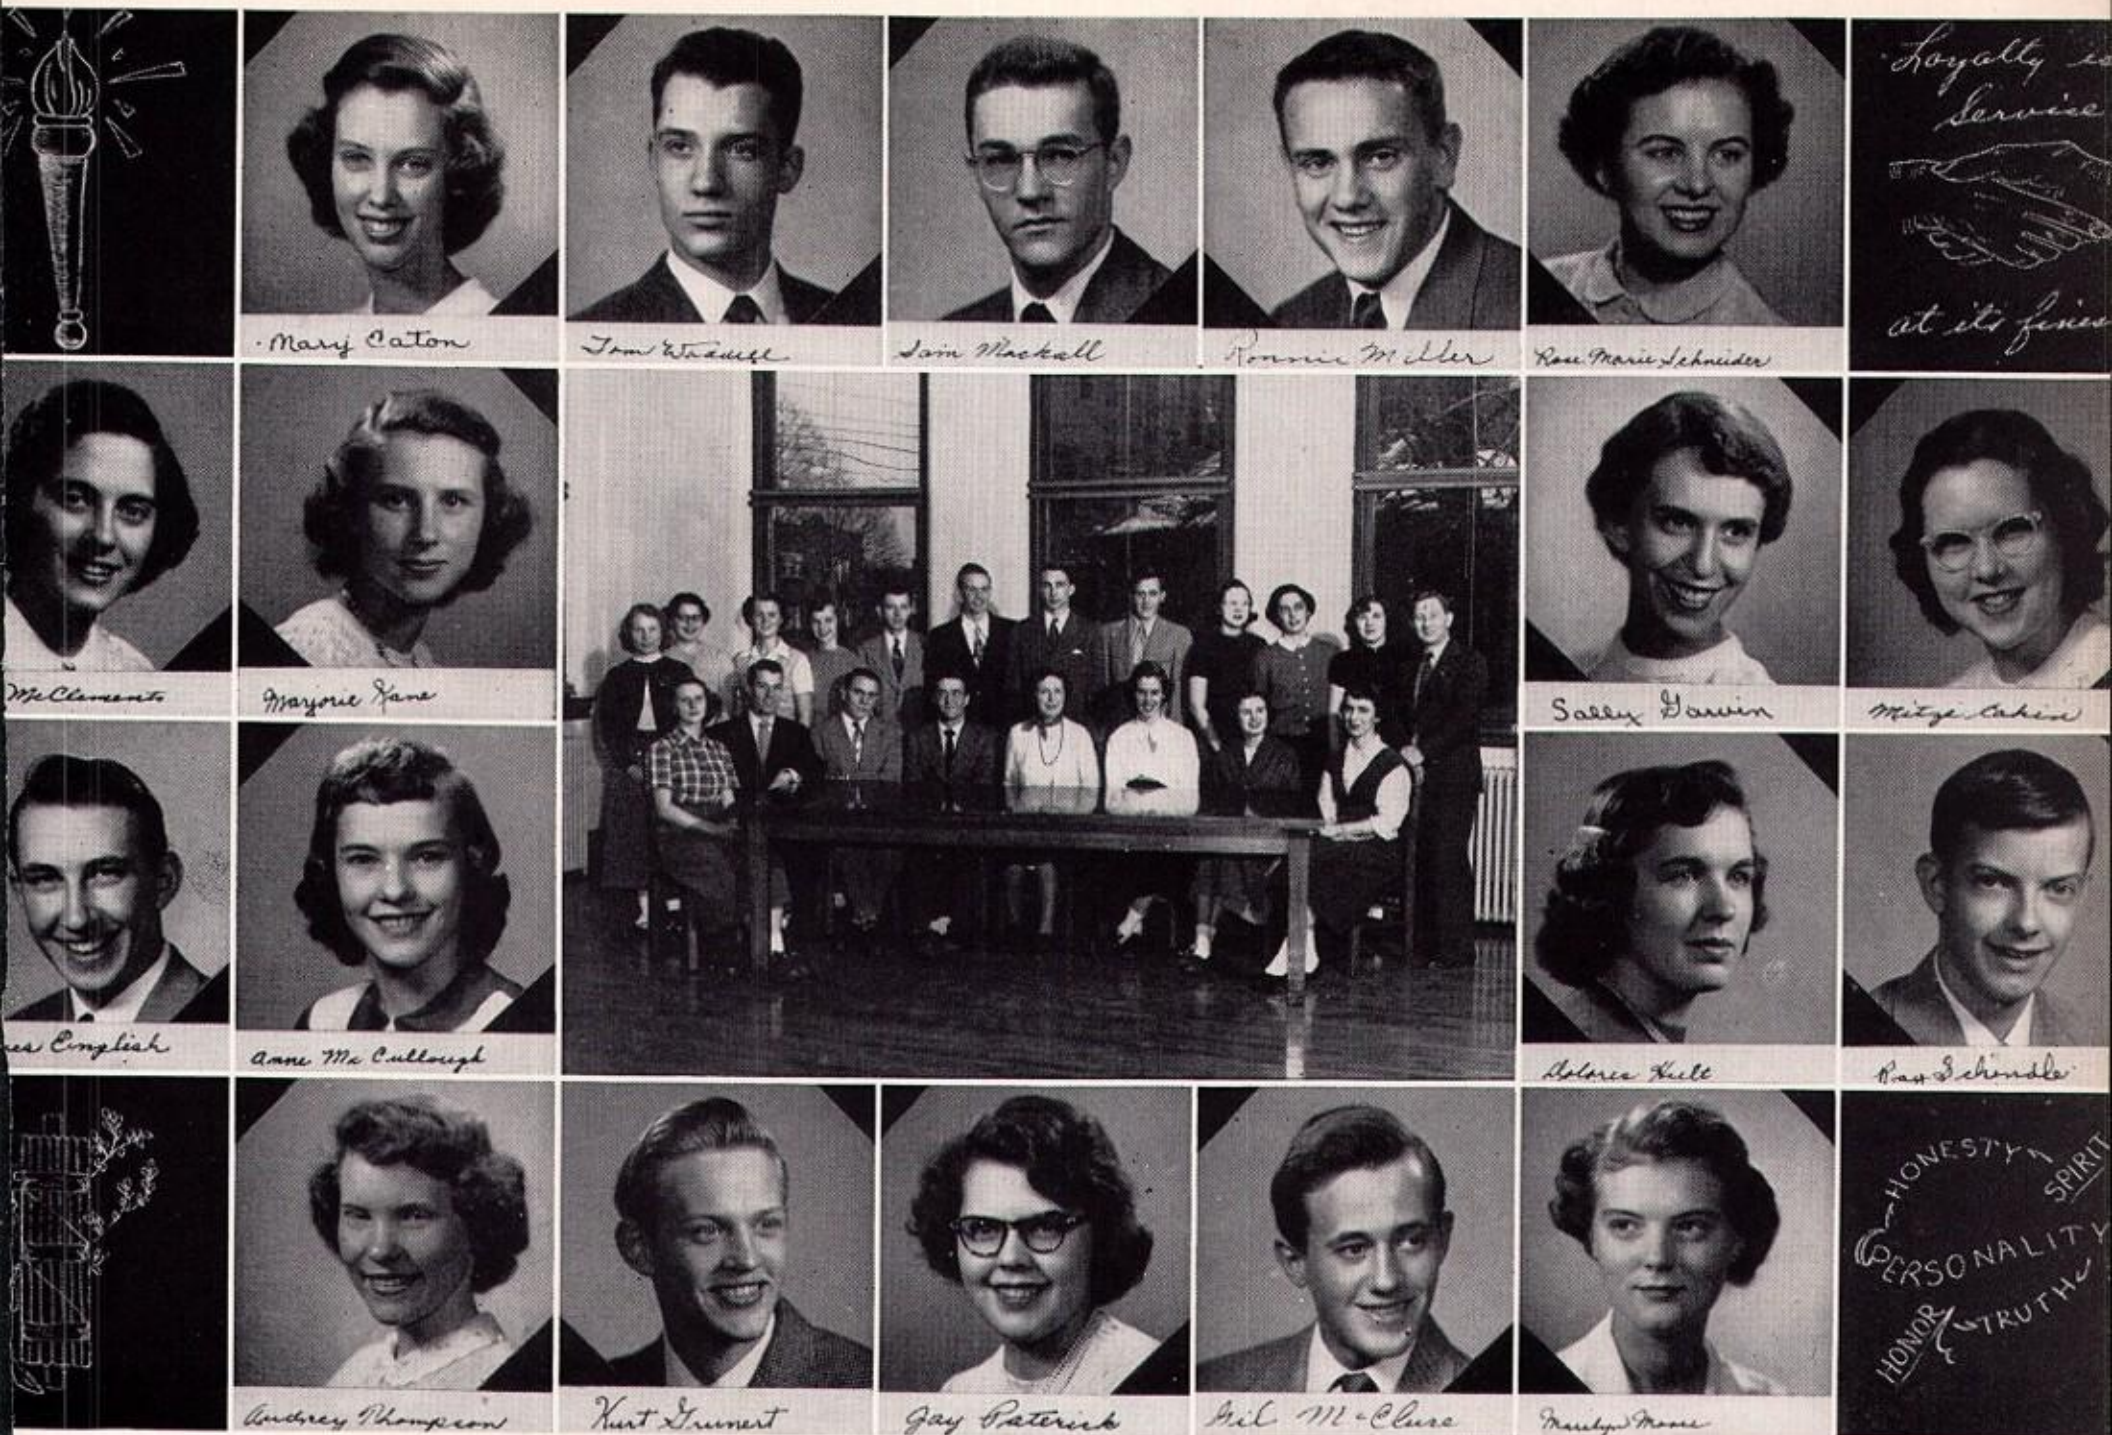

Designed to act as a co-ordinating agency among the various clubs, organizations, and activities of the school, the council meets at frequent intervals to discuss the problems, programs, and accomplishments of these organizations. Through this medium, all of the clubs are able to find out what the others are doing and can offer suggestions for solving problems.

Since the departure of Dr. McCormick, Mr. Charles S. Linn has sponsored this group.

National Honor Society

"This above all,—to thine own self be true;
And it must follow as the night the day,
Thou canst not then be false to any man."
Shakespeare—"Hamlet".

Scholarship—having the character or qualities of a scholar—the act of ranking high in scholarly attainment.

Leadership—having the character or qualities of a leader—the act of ranking high in guiding others to better attainment.

Service—having the character or qualities of devotion to duties—the act of ranking high in rendering usefulness to one's fellow beings.

Character—having the qualities of high moral excellence—the act of ranking high in the esteem and respect of others.

Such are the characteristics and qualities to be looked for and found in students aspiring to membership in the National Honor Society, of which Beaver High School has the Alpha Chapter.

As a class enters high school many of its members establish for themselves goals to attain. Usually, one of these is election to membership in this National Honor Society. For those who are elected it means great honor as only fifteen percent of any class is eligible. It also means many obligations, because election to membership is not the final attainment but only the realization of the challenge to develop and enrich those four characteristics which are so vitally important in life.

It is to be hoped that the members selected from this class—as well as future classes—will accept the challenge and continue to grow in scholarship, leadership, service and above all to maintain the highest and best elements of character.

The Tri-Hi-Y got off to a good beginning this year with a new induction ceremony. The beautiful and impressive installation of new members was held on the stage of the auditorium which was draped in white and banked with ferns. Under subdued lights the officers read the solemn charges and challenges to the new members. As a new feature, each person lit her candle from the large one on the stage and said her name.

The motto of Tri-Hi-Y, "To create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character," was certainly used this year by this service organization. To the first service project, the members contributed generously. Needy children of Germany were sent soap and candy.

This year's fine program was carried out successfully by the club's sponsor, Miss Thelma Campbell, and the club's officers: President, Marilyn Moore; Vice President, Pat Mortimer; Secretary, Vonnie Heath; Treasurer, Rita Jean Craig.

G. A. A.

The Girls' Athletic Association sponsors the program of intramural sports for the girls of Beaver High. The first tournament was soccer, then hockey. After the girls' ankles had healed, their arms had a chance to develop unknown muscles while playing badminton, and tennis. The G. A. A.'s favorite game, basketball, was played during January and February. The club was divided into eight basketball teams captained by the leaders.

This year the G. A. A. was host to five other schools in the annual play day. To eliminate school rivalry, one of the six girls present from each school was placed on each team. Basketball, as usual, was the main feature with shuffleboard and ping-pong played also.

The officers of the G. A. A. are president, Hilda Haire; vice-president, Janet Broyles; secretary, Katherine Schneider; and treasurer, Mary Ellen Meyers.

This group is under the leadership of Mr. Charlesworth, and the club's officers are: Dick Smith, president; Darla Hall, vice-president; Georgia Shaw, secretary; and Mary Ellen Edwards, treasurer.

The Leaders' Club is a girls' athletic organization composed of the top 12 athletes of the senior high school: five seniors, four juniors, three sophomores. In gym class, they assist the teacher by taking the roll and checking showers. Outside of class, they play different schools in basketball and mushball. This year they attended two playdays and sponsored one themselves. The members are: seniors—Janet Broyles, Kathryn Craft, Elizabeth Yandell, Mary Jane Barnes, Sally Garvin, juniors—Sally Fife, Lois Piemme, Charlotte Patterson, Barbara Gula, sophomores—Suzie Coombs, Marguerite Taylor, Darla Hall. Swing your partner and dosey-do--Oops! That floor is slippery. A new feature, square dancing, was added to the activities of the Bobcat Club this year in the hope that it would recaptivate the interest of a greater number of students.

As in other years, the club sponsored the Basketball Dance and the semi-formal Christmas dance. Both the dances were open to guests of the student body. The idea proved to be very successful.

The success of the club is due to the efforts of the president, Steve Oliphant; vice-president, Eddie Renner; secretary, Gretchen Sohn; treasurer, Margie Cook; and Mr. Higbee as sponsor, who worked untiringly to present a program of dances that the students of B. H. S. might enjoy.

Umm! Can we ever forget those luscious odors that drifted from the home economics room and made quite a few mouths water?

The first meetings were devoted to organization of the club and election of officers.

Under the capable direction of Mrs. Ruth V. Shaul, the club sponsor, the club has profited from the knowledge gained and contacts made. The officers of the club are Mary Eaton, president; Shirley Azarello, vice president; Charlotte Patterson, secretary; and Margie Moravec, treasurer.

"Life is just a bowl of Cherries"

The Bobcats left for football camp at Grove City College on Sunday, August 27 after a long, strenuous training grind marked by many bumps and bruises. Transportation was provided by several of the players parents. Two other teams, as usual, were sharing the dormitory with the gridgers. They were Swissvale and Munhall. For the Bobcats practice started at 9:30 Monday morning and finished at 11:30 depending on the success of the practice. The activities were limited to eating, sleeping, and talking football though, but at times the monotony was broken by activities deviating from the rules and regulations set up by our genial coaches Kane and Cutri. Because of the shortage of soap, a fund was started for the benefit of the boys. The boys and coaches were assessed 10c for every word not found in the English dictionary. At the end of the week the team started to shape up and take form for their opening grid battle with the Midland Leopards. On Saturday, September 2, the cleaters returned home and Manager Norm Oakes and cohorts laid in a large supply of tape and liniment foreseeing a long hard season.

Midland

Beaver opened the 1950 season with the Midland Leopards at Midland.

After Beaver received the opening kick-off, several punts were exchanged before Midland recovered a Bobcat bobble on our own ten yard line. Three plays later Boyle scored and Midland led 6-0 at halftime.

Reider scored two more touchdowns for the Leopards in the third quarter on runs of two and twenty-eight yards.

The Bobcats registered their only score in the final stanza when Equels scored from the three after Beaver recovered a Midland fumble on the fifteen. The extra point try failed and Beaver went down to a 19 to 6 defeat.

Even in defeat the defensive work of Mitchell and Clark looked impressive.

Tarentum

The Tarentum Redcats came from behind to hand the Bobcats their second defeat. Beaver held the lead at halftime 7 to 6, but Tarentum came back in the second half to make the final score read 26 to 7.

Tarentum tallied early on a pass play but Miller blocked their extra point try. In the second period Beaver took over on the Redcat 30 after a poor punt. Six plays later they produced their only score with Equels going over from the one. His placekick was in the right place and Beaver took the lead, 7 to 6.

In the second half, however, the heavier and more experienced Tarentum team, showed its prowess by scoring three more touchdowns while holding the Bobcats scoreless—thus inflicting the second defeat upon our team.

Fifth Avenue

Beaver and Fifth Avenue battled to a scoreless tie in a hard-fought contest played on our home grounds. The Bobcats definitely outplayed the city high school boys but they lacked the necessary scoring punch. The Kanemen had three excellent opportunities to score, but they failed each time. Their scoring drives were halted on the ten, three, and one yard lines.

Beaver's running game showed improvement but their passing attack was not yet up to par. The ineffectiveness of the Bobcat aerial attack hampered their offense considerably. Their defensive game looked better than it had in the two previous encounters.

West View

Sparked by several hard-running backs, West View ground out a decisive 32 to 6 victory over the Beavers. The game was featured by several long and exciting touchdown runs.

Nardulli scored first for the Indians when he cracked through the Bobcat line from the one. In the second period West View's swivel-hipped backs scored three touchdowns to sew up the contest.

Early in the third period the visitors completed their scoring for the evening on a fifty-six yard pass play. Fans were filing toward the exits in the waning minutes of the game when Denny Mitchell intercepted an Indian aerial and galloped seventy-five yards down the sidelines to score our only touchdown of the game.

New Brighton

"Beaver's Battered Bobcats" suffered their fourth defeat at the hands of New Brighton's Class A, W. P. I. A. L. Co-Champions, by a 35 to 0 score.

Playing like the champs they turned out to be, the Lions never gave the Beaver's offense a chance to get going. Meanwhile, they rolled to five touchdowns and Francona kicked all five points after touchdowns.

Beaver played without the services of quarterback Ronnie Miller, who was sidelined with a leg injury.

Freedom

The Beaver gridders went down to their next defeat at the hands of the Freedom Bulldogs, who enjoyed their best season in many years. Freedom rolled to a 33 to 0 halftime lead from which the Bobcats never recovered. After an interesting halftime oration by Coach Kane, however, the Beavers held Freedom to a lone tally in the second half. The final score read 40 to 0 in favor of the red-clad Oilers. Beaver played without two regulars—Fife, who had a rib injury, and Mitchell, who, suffering from a severe case of flu, was lost to his teammates for the remainder of the season. Ronnie Miller also saw only limited service in this contest.

Monaca

The Bobcats finally came out on top by beating Monaca in a thrilling 12 to 7 battle played on Indian soil.

Monaca scored in the first period on a plunge by Duncan. Their conversion was good and they led 7 to 0.

The Beavers fought back in the second quarter and Equels climaxed a sustained drive by crashing over for a touchdown. The brilliant pass-catching of end Boyd Clark featured this scoring drive. The attempted conversion failed and Monaca held a one point lead.

Neither team threatened in the second half until Beaver gained possession late in the fourth stanza. The Bobcats then moved to their game winning score, which was also made by Tom Equels. All the members of the team deserve credit for their part in this fine victory over Monaca.

Coraopolis

Playing on the beautiful turf of the new Cory stadium, the Bobcats and the Blue Devils battled to a 6 -6 deadlock.

Soon after the opening kickoff, Beaver started a drive which was halted on the one yard line by the stubborn Cory line. The Blue Devils then took possession of the ball and moved the length of the field for their lone tally.

Beaver received the kickoff and moved the ball downfield to the Cory two yard line. From this point Miller bucked over to score. The score remained deadlocked at 6-6. The second half was uninteresting as neither team threatened to score.

Rochester

After having the game postponed twice because of rain, Beaver and Rochester played the forty-second renewal of their ancient grid series before a large crowd in the Gypsy Glen Stadium.

The Rams scored early in the first stanza when Pickens plunged over from the two and Miles added the P. A. T.

Beaver then received the kickoff and moved 69 yards to score. The running of Weaver and Equels and the Hamilton catch of a Clinard pass helped considerably in the scoring drive. Equels scored on a short buck and converted to tie the score 7-7 at halftime.

Rochester's heavier line held Beaver in check in the second half while they scored two more T. D.'s to make the final score read 20 to 7 in favor of the Rams.

FRANK HACKO—height 6' 2"—"Hacks" was our center and rebounder during the '50-'51 season. His loss, because of an ankle injury, tremendously hurt our chances during the first half of section play. Frank had 164 points in the games which he did play.

DENNY MITCHELL—Height 5' 10"—Denny was our first string guard this year, and a very good one too. He played an aggressive game and was a very fine ball handler. He amassed a total of 82 points during the current season. Although we know it isn't true, Denny jokingly expresses his desire to play ball under Salvatore Solazzo.

BOYD CLARK—height 6' 2½"—"Ozark", a good rebounder and team player, was a substitute most of the season, but his ability was much needed when a game became hotly contested. Boyd had 19 field goals and 9 fouls for a total of 47 points.

STEVE OLIPHANT—Senior Manager—Any time there was work to be done, one could always find Steve. "Dunc" played two reserve games this year when some of the regulars were ineligible. During these games Steve had 11 points for a 5.5 point average per game.

Coach Ernie Johnson coached his baseball squad into the W. P. I. A. L. championship tournament after a very impressive season. The hustling maroon and gray team combined excellent pitching, hitting and fielding to finish the season with eleven victories against only five defeats on top of Section Six. The Bobcat squad entered the first round of the W. P. I. A. L. tournament against the Farrell High School Steelers here at Gypsy Glenn in a game played in a continual downpour.

The following are lettermen: English, Renner, Mitchell, Hacko, K. Hayes, Segmiller, Milligan, D. Kerr, Firestone, Herman, Watterson, Clinard, and Kunkle. The 1951 squad will have eight returning lettermen.

Recessional

(Audience will please remain seated during the Processional and Recessional)

In this day and age when education is of paramount importance in producing a well-rounded individual, we sometimes forget that outstanding scholarship deserves a distinguished place in our community life. We ought to recognize that the educative process is aimed at training young people in social competence. The opportunity gives each the advantage of developing his talents and abilities to the greatest degree in order to adjust a well-informed, well-trained citizen to an ever-changing world.

Too little emphasis is given to the students who have maintained a high scholastic average throughout their four years in high school. The students on this page have attained the goal of graduating in the upper ten per cent of their class. Their fine records of scholarship have given to them the success that can only be earned by hard work. Through this work they have fulfilled the major objective of school—scholarship. What they have gained cannot be measured; yet what they have learned will repay itself many fold.

"Among Our Souvenirs"

The senior class of 1950 presented as their class play, "I Remember Mama", a two-act play written by John Van Druten.

The story revolved around a Swedish family who lived in San Francisco many years ago. It brought to Beaver High School a new type of stage production. There was no scenery or setting and the two sets were made up of some nineteen scenes.

The characters were excellently portrayed by a hard-working and talented cast. The members of the cast were: Katrin—Maxine Gardner; Mama—Marsue McChesney; Papa—George Edwards; Dagmar—Charlotte Bradshaw; Christine—Velma Lou Anderson; Mr. Hyde—Marshall Waddell; Nels—Barry Kunkle; Aunt Trina—Mary Linn; Aunt Sigrid—Marilyn Ervin; Aunt Jenny—Myrtle Minke; Uncle Chris—Thomas Piemme; Jessie—Margie Krise; Mr. Torkelson—William Heideger; Dr. Johnson—William Segmiller; Arne—Duane Wakeley; A Nurse—Shirley Spear; Another Nurse—Barbara Moravec; Soda Clerk—Robert Havenhill; Madilme—Joyce O'Donnell; Dorothy Schiller; Neda Burneson; Florence Dana Moorehead—Doris Mathews; Bell-Boy—Ralph McCullough; Scrubwoman—Barbara Dowd.

The play was ably directed by Mary Allen Jones.

Stage Crew and Committee Members

Our Miss Brooks

The class of 1952 made its theatrical debut with the three-act comedy "Our Miss Brooks."

Miss Brooks, a young school teacher, feels that perhaps she's not quite as young as she used to be. A home, a loving husband and family she decides is just what she needs. The only likely prospect, however, is the boy's gym teacher, Hugo, with whom she frequently quarrels. The various complications that arose and what finally happened made an evening well spent.

The cast responsible for this enjoyable play were: Miss Brooks—Vonnice Heath; Miss

Mrs. Beulah V. Cook did a fine job in directing this play.

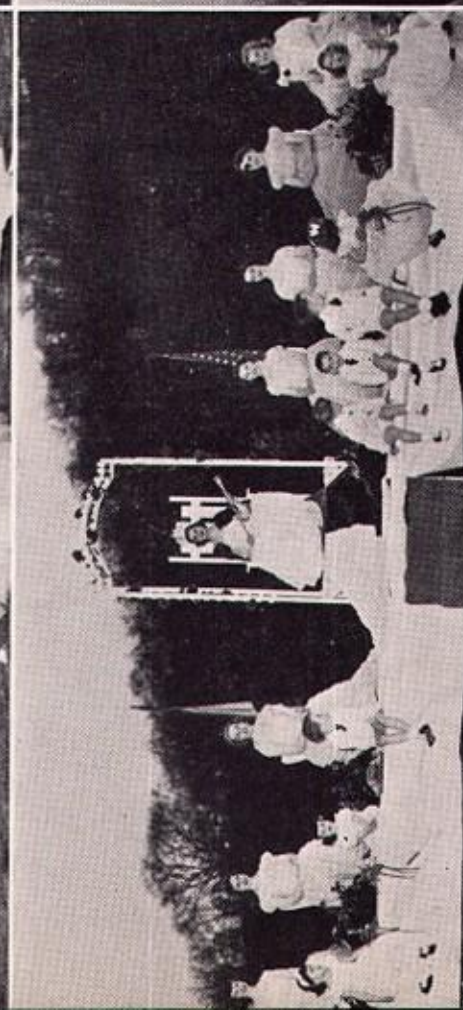

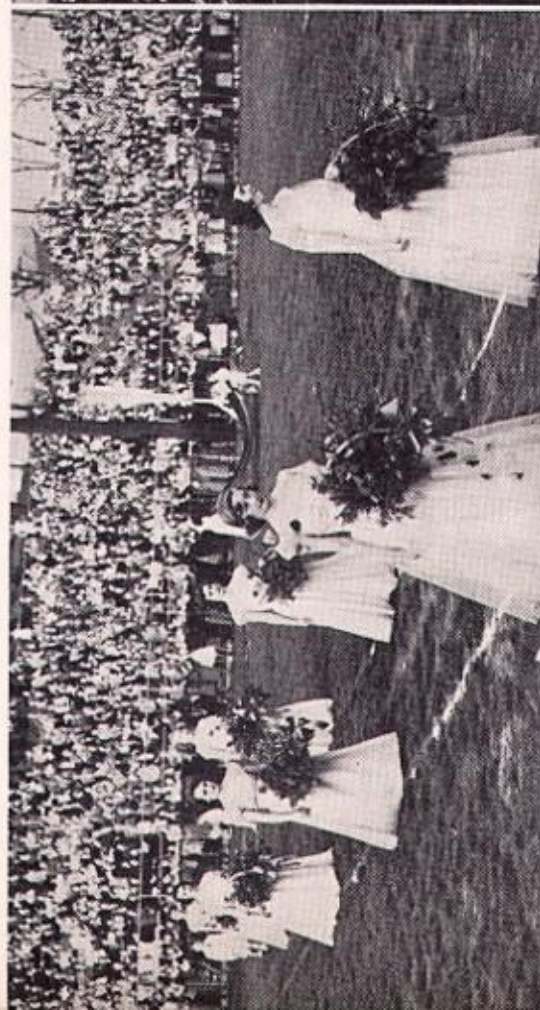

May Day

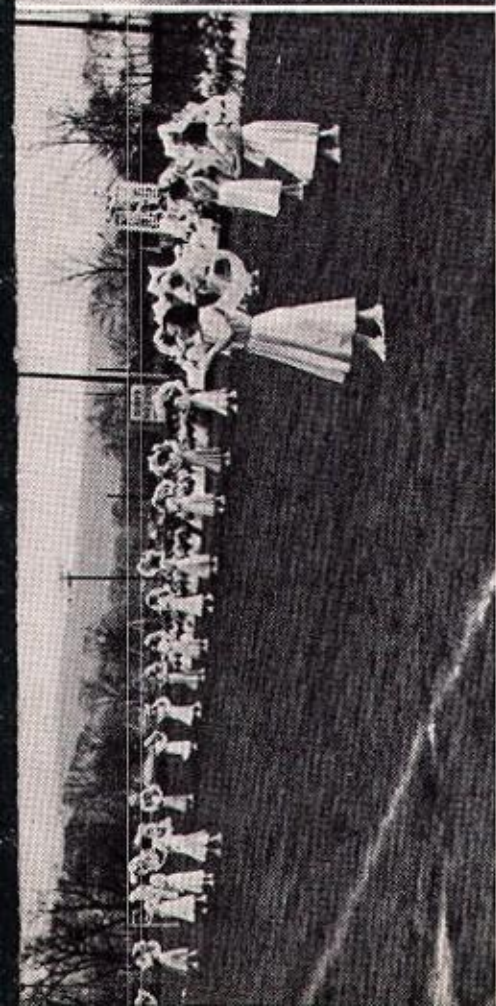

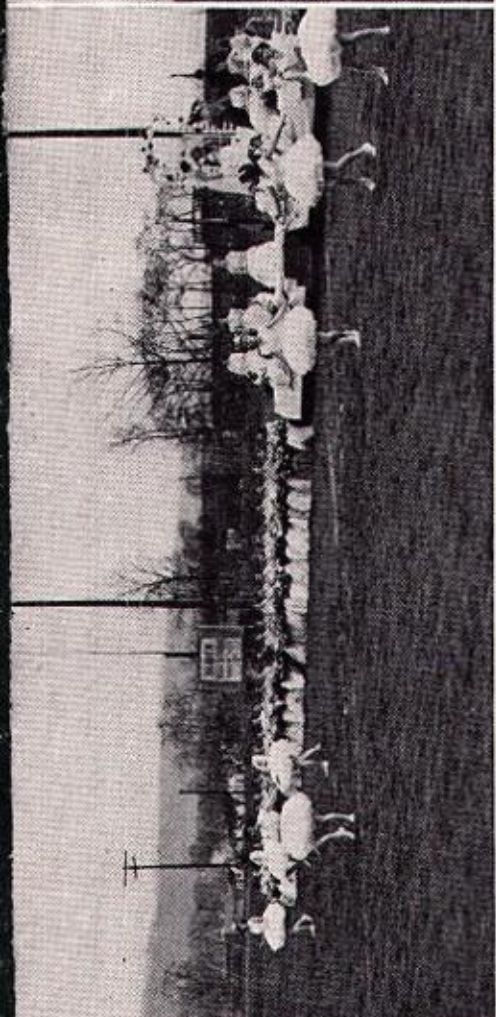

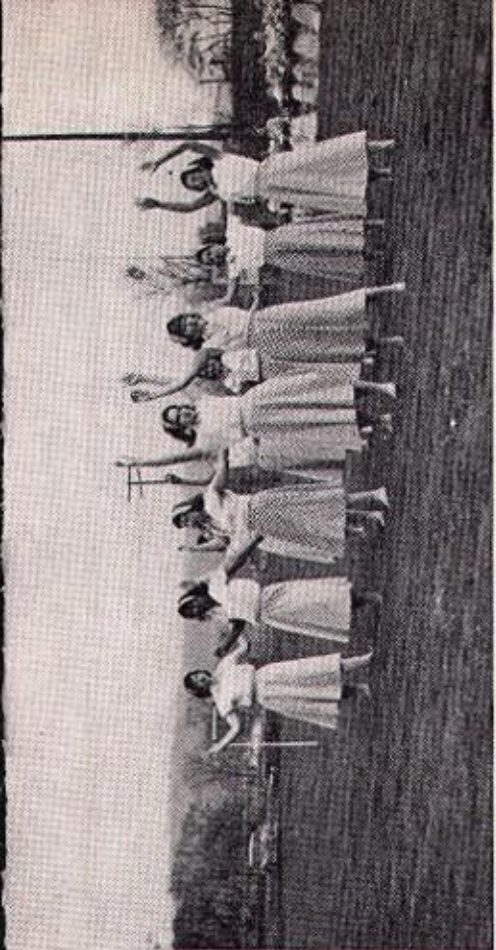

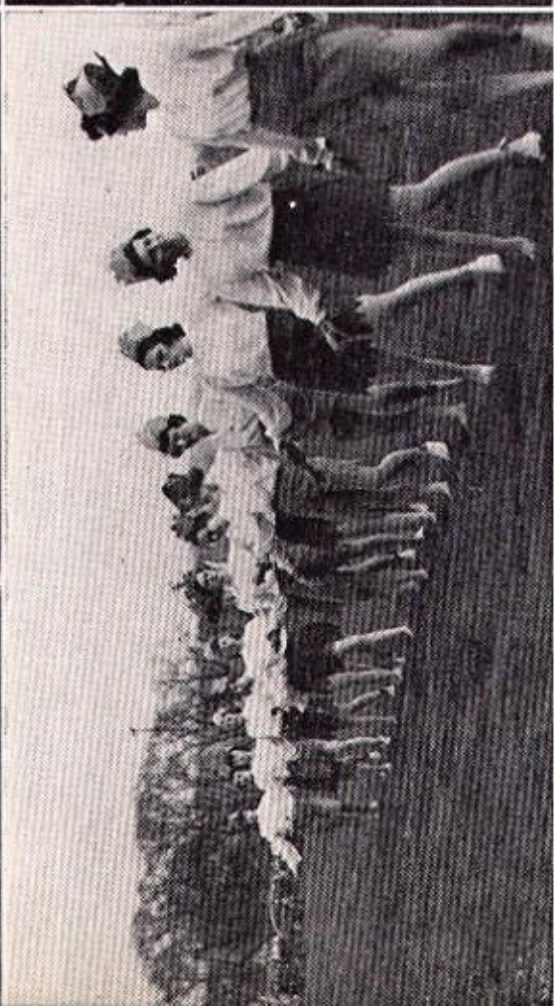

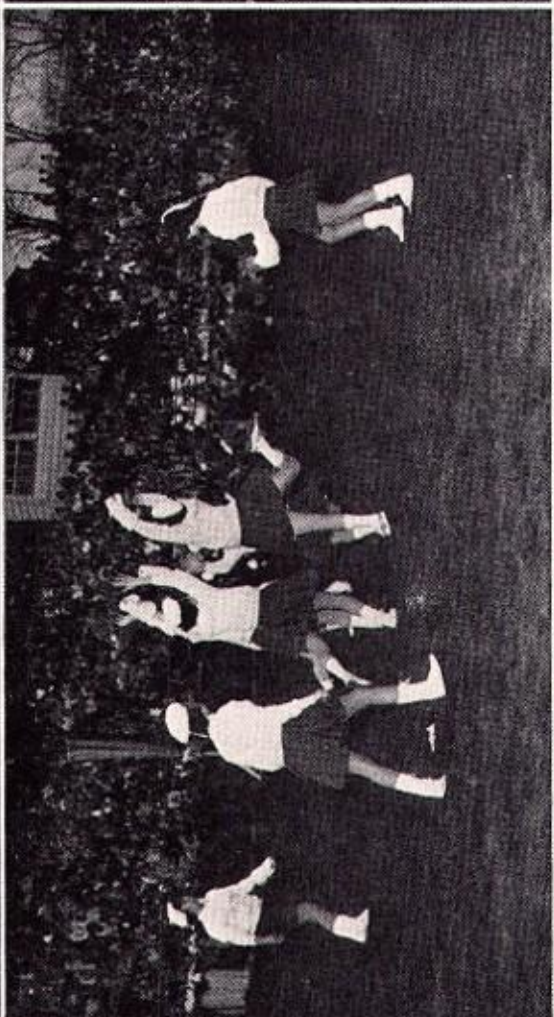

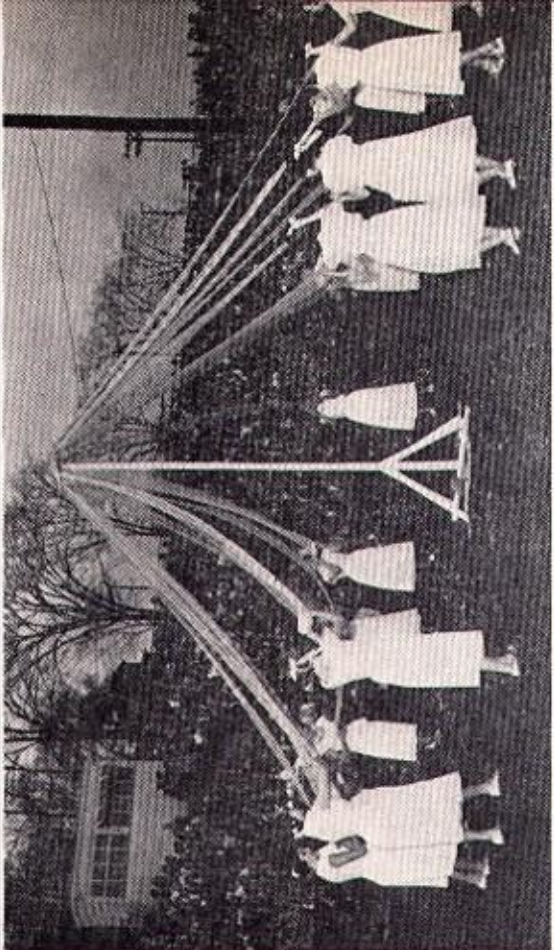

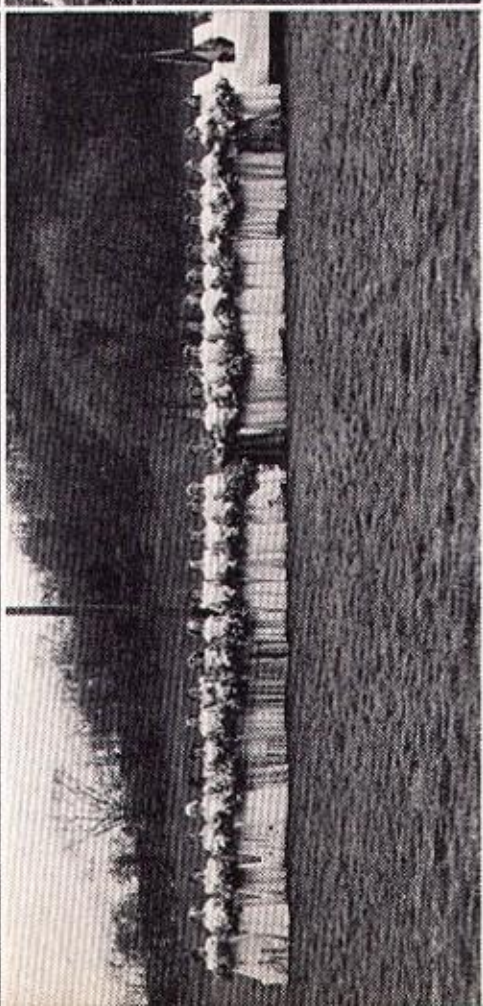

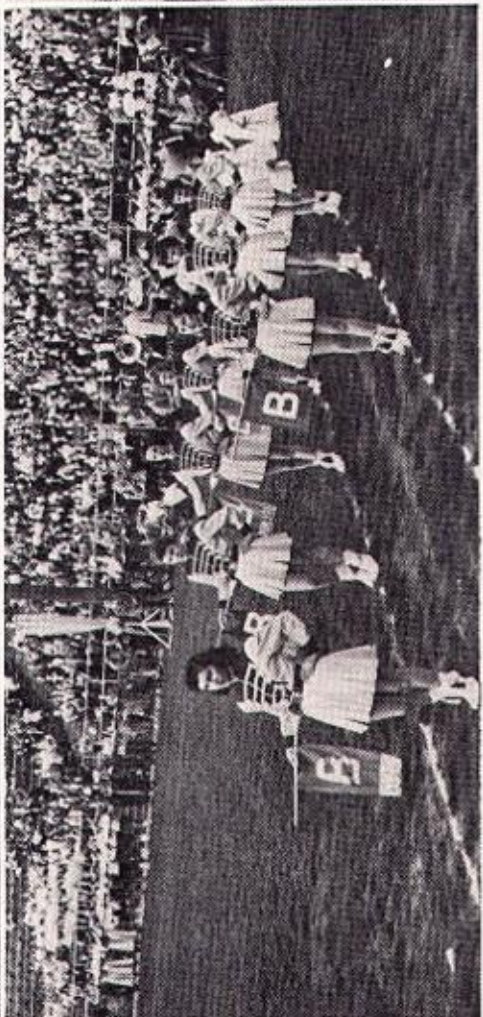

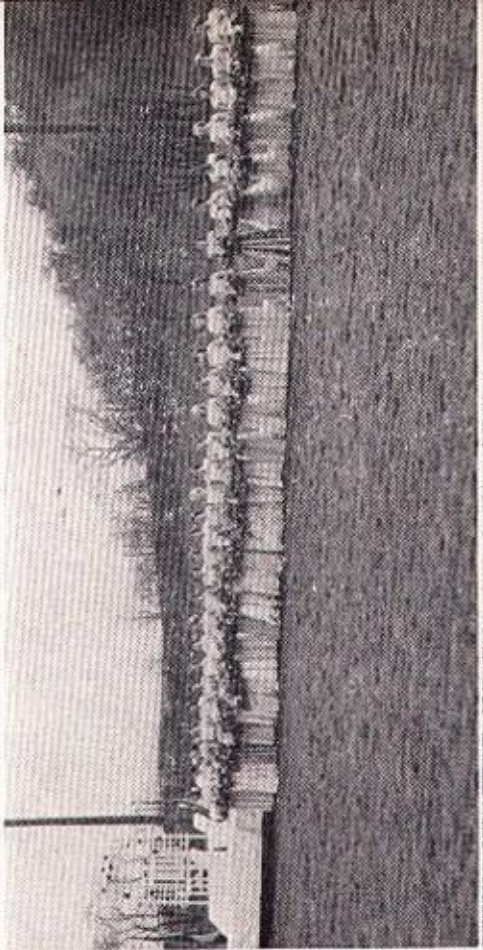

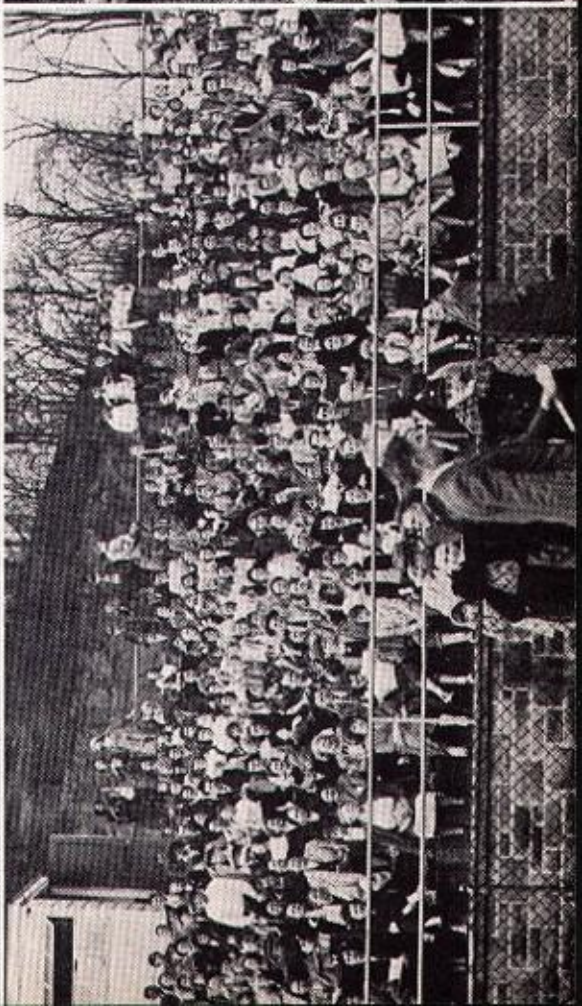

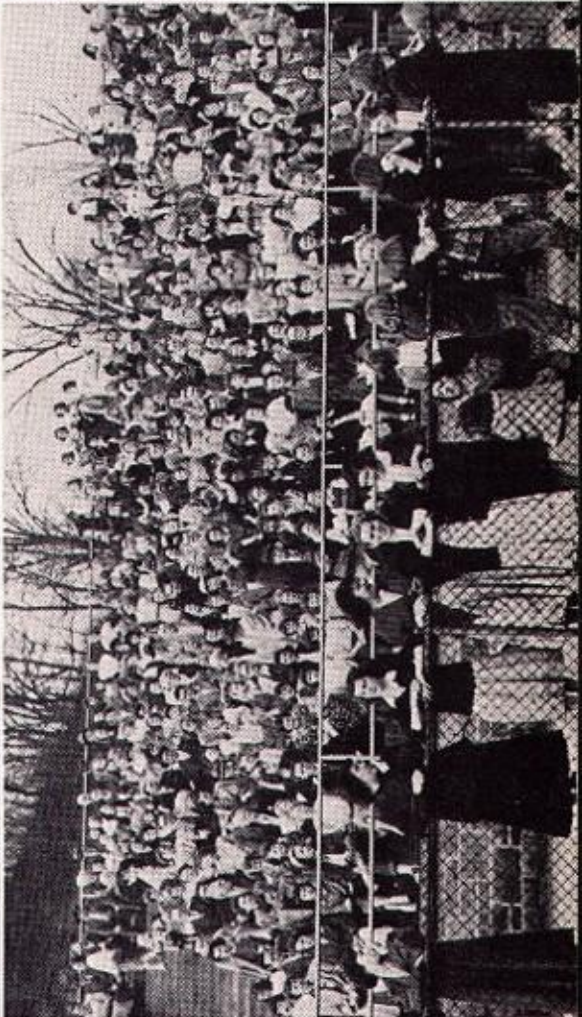

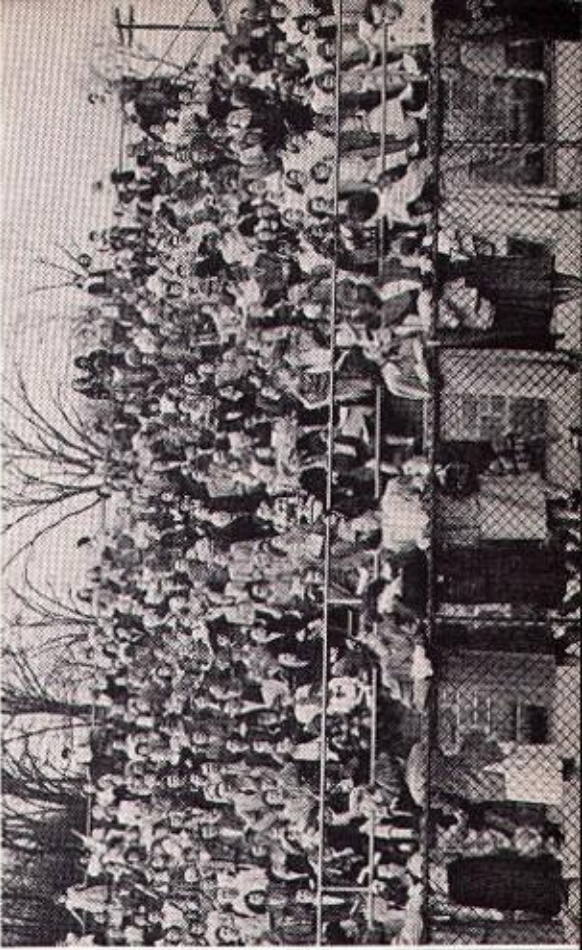

As she reigned over the Thirteenth Annual May Day exercises of Beaver High School, Her Royal Majesty, Kathryn Louise Heller was gowned in white with the traditional maroon robe. To the familiar strains of "Pomp and Circumstance", Queen Kathryn and her court, Maid of Honor, Josephine Guzzetti, Beverly Bixler, LaRue High, Shirley Speer, Helen Schleiter, Joyce O'Donnell, and Patricia Orth created a stately atmosphere as they proceeded to the royal throne. Leading this procession were the tiny flower girls, Celia Powell, Amy Harper, Randall Holt, and Ellen Lipsitz; the sceptre bearer, Lawson Cashdollar; and the crown bearer, Daniel Schaffer. Carrying the train were little David Hagen and William Allmon.

The program was centered around the four seasons of the year. Each season was presented in the form of a dance, performed by the members of the girls' physical education classes. As has been the tradition in previous years, the finale was the May Pole Dance, created by the ninth grade girls.

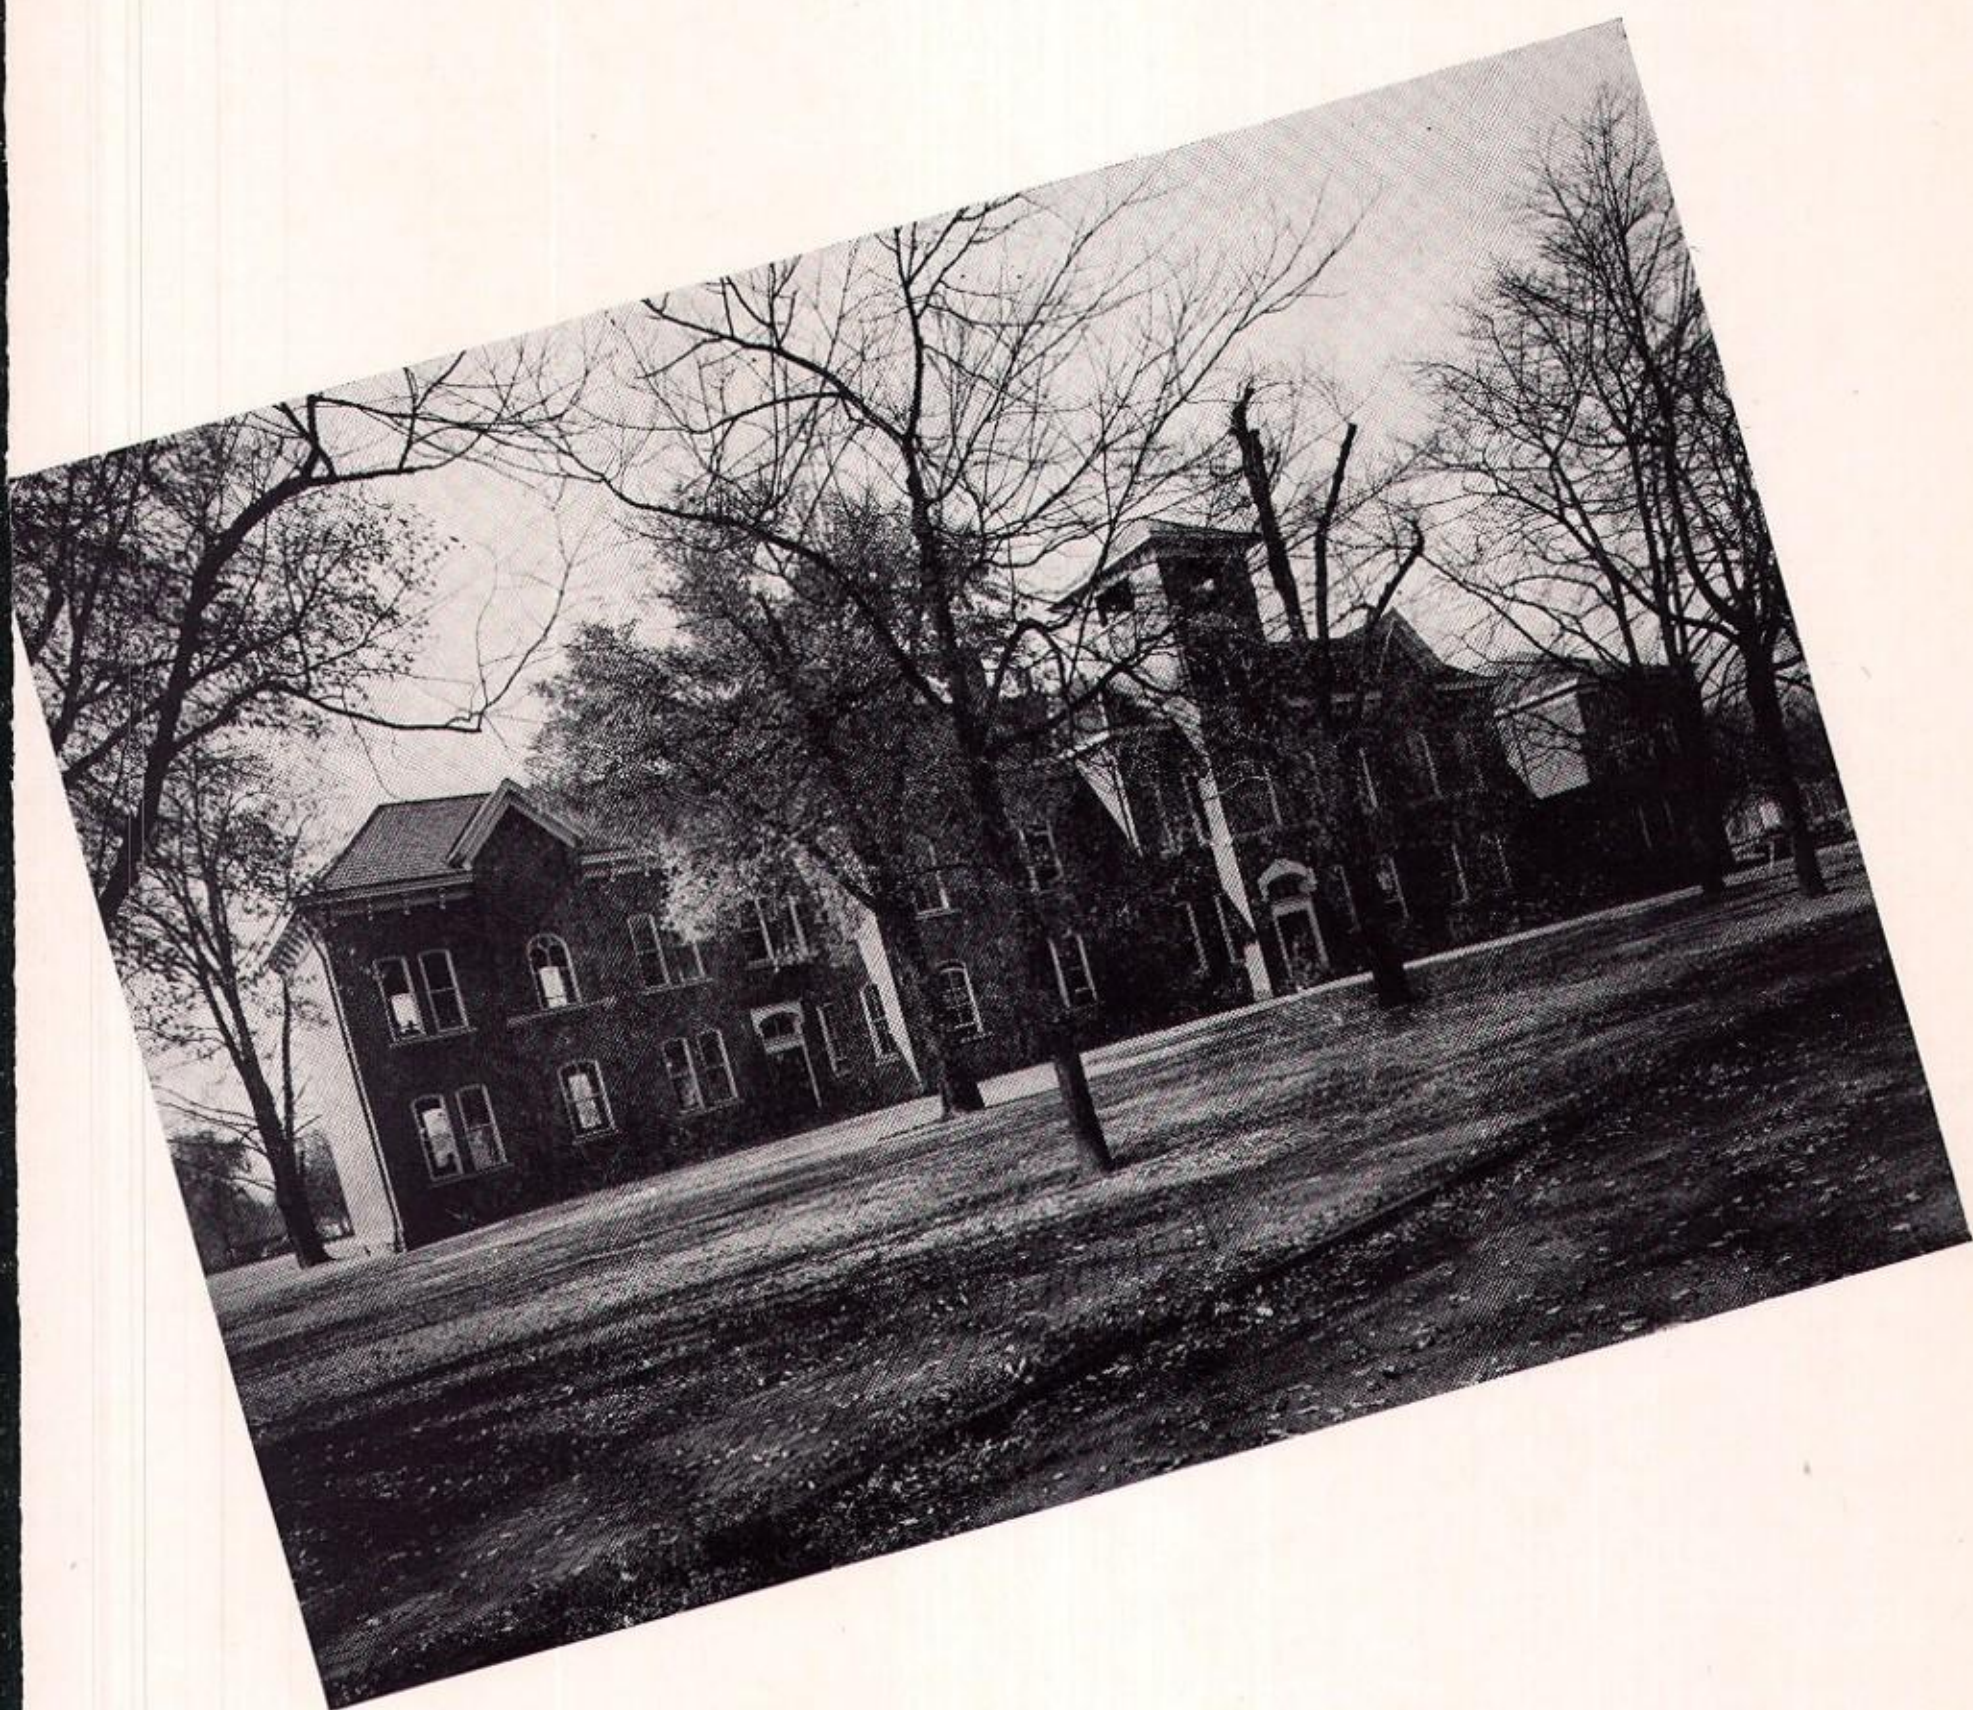

The entire May Day program was under the supervision of Mrs. Charlotte A'Hearn, physical education instructor, and A. Murray Cornelius, music director.

The Keyhole Staff

The Keyhole, lively junior high school publication, brings the latest gossip and news of school happenings to the students every six weeks. Designed to create a better school spirit and to allow students to work together in a large enterprise the paper is distributed to everyone in the school free of charge. The student council and the school board share the expenses of publishing the paper. Under the supervision of Mr. Dalberg, the sponsor, the Keyhole staff consists of 62 members, including one editor from each of the three grades. The Keyhole is one of several projects brought about during the past few years to make school life more interesting for members of the junior high.

"Little guys with big ideas,

Under the capable coaching of Mr. Johnson and Mr. Shaul, the 1950 edition of the junior Bobcats turned in their most successful season in the history of a Junior High School team.

Combining a devastating running attack with accurate passing, making an impenetrable defense, the little Beavers rolled to six successive victories without a defeat. In the course of the season, the Johnsonmen scored a total of 156 points which is an average of 26 per contest. They were not scored upon until the waning minutes of their final game with New Brighton. At the end of this impressive season, Kent Black, lanky pass-catching end, was elected captain. The students of B. H. S. extend their congratulations to a great football team.
